DR. HOSTETTER'S

STOMACH BITTERS

THE OPERATION OF THIS PALA table remedy upon the stomach, fiver and ry organs is singularly soothing and conserv It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dy a in all its forms yields to its control an corating properties. Invigorate the System.

Vigorous digestion and pure bile produce nutric ous blood, and nutricious blood a healthy fram Does the victim of a dyspeptic stomach and a dis ordered liver desire to know how the digestion may be improved, the bile and the other fluids of the body purified?

Hestetter's Stomach Bitters

Will accomplish this desirable revolution in t system regulating the secretions and exerction giving tone to the animal juices which dissolve t food, strengthen every relaxed nerve, muscle a fibre, and brings the whole machinery of vital lato vigorous and healthful play. Strengthen the System.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Debility, from whatever cause arising, may be sured; strength, in whatever manner it may have been wasted, may be restored by the use of this powerful and healthul invigorant. For indigestion and all its painful effects, bodily and meutal, they are a positive specific. A Word to the Aged.

In the decline of life the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be sately as plied by some vivifying preparation which recruit he strength and spirits, without entailing the haustion which is always the final effect of ordina: stimulants. We tender to the naged Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters,

As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in it beneficial action and permanent in its effects. I tonesthe stomach, improves the appetite, and act like a charm upon the splits. For Females.

Thousands of ladies resort to its a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervious headache, vertigo, general debility and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. COLONIAL STATISTICS We have so often alluded to the disgraceful want of official statistics of the condition of Vancouver Island, that we are beginning to fancy, from the disposition evinced by the Legislative branches of the Government that our rulers have become so enamored of experimental legislation-so determined to grope in the dark, blundering here and stumbling there, that they are really averse to the smallest ray of light being admitted to the subjects of their consideration. What would be thought of a man in possession of an estate who cared not to enquire into its nature or extent, its capacity to produce wealth or the amount of wealth it was producing, its increase, in fact, or decrease material prosperity? Yet this is just what the Government of Vancouver Island has been doing since it came into possession in 1858. A more enlightened state of things was expected from the new administration and in the hopes that something would be done on the advent of Governor Kennedy we drew attention at some length to the subject in May last. We pointed out the fact that there was scarcely a single subject that came up for legislation that is thoroughly weighed or understood in its bearings on the inhabitants. "When taxation" we gaid " becomes the matter of debate, we have one member putting down the total number of the inhabitants of the Island at 5000 and another at 10,000, just as the figures may suit the gentleman's arguments or fancy and again we have the agricultural land stated by one member to be almost illimitable and by another to be but a few thousand Our imports and exports-things which our Legislature rarely touches uponare probably the only subjects of importance with which the Government is thoroughly acquainted. The industrial resources of the country—the real elements of our future prosperity—are never thought of. The first move has yet to be made to acquire a know-ledge of the number of actual settlers, the

Such was the state of things when wrote exactly six months ago, and although we have had no end of speeches in the Assembly-long-winded enough some of them -we have yet to listen to the first member. who seems to under tand that without statistics legislation is worse than a lottery. We have yet to discover an Assembly politician who is aware that the first aim of a statesman is to know sorething about the internal economy of the country whose interests are placed in his safe-keeping. Members may xpatiate upon the benefits or evils of unio and grow eloquent over the outrages of the Hudson's Bay Company; but it is time thrown away if they cannot show a capacity to govern the country. We would desire very much to see that million of dollars paid over to us by the fur traders; but if we are to have it controlled by a Legislature that is content to remain in utter ignorance of the progress of the colony, we think it would be much better that the sum should remain in This ignorance of our actual condition is injurious in more ways than one -it is not the dark; but every business man, farmer and resident of the Island. Our connection and intercourse with even other countries are materially affected by a state of affairs that makes everything a hazard. If we asked to-morrow what had been the amount of land and the character of the crops under cultivation in the colony the present year, or, in fact, any year since 1858, or the number of head of stock, we could not get anything even like an approximation. We should have an oscillation between a hundred or a thousand per cent. If we asked for the number of arrivals and departures, the rate of increase or decrease of our population, the answer would be scarcely any nearer the truth. Surely this is a condition only justifiable in a country where the habits and customs of civilized life do not obtain! We think it hard sometimes that, with all our resources, we are so little noticed by the outer world; but is it not our own fault? What information can we afford to any country that would be useful to it or to ourselves. We can glean from " universal information" books, gazetteers, periodicals, and so forth, statistics of almost every other civilized country in the worldwe can tell the amount of population of Prince Edward's Island -- the wheat crop of Canada-the ship building of New Brunswick and the fisheries of New Foundland; but where are we to meet with anything about Vancouver Island or even British Columbia, unless it comes in the shape of "notice to correspondents" in an English paper, to the state of the country than they were to the state of the country than they were before. We have shown previously how our colonial statistics could be obtained without costing the colony an additional appointment or anything over a trifling expense. We have "pointed out how a registrar of births, deaths and marriages could be very easily construct-less the commencement of an extensive and less the content of the and marriages could be very easily constructed out of some of our not over-worked officials-how the police could take the census -how the magistrates or Government representatives in the various districts could furnish all the necessary details about those districts-and how every description of infor-

He left Kootenay on the 13th and was the bearer of disastehes from Commissions Country cany on the 13th and was the bener of dispatches from Commissioner O'Reilly (query Haynes). From Mr. Jenkins we obtain the following information: There had been no snow whatever, and very slight frosts, and the weather continued delightful. The winsters are short and mild in that part of the country; so much so that sluice mining can be carried on during nine months in the year. The claims generally continued to pay equally as well as when the Colonial Secretary was there. Two of them, viz. Fisher's and Prindles, were paying better. Four of the hill tunnels alluded to in the Colonial Secretary's report had struck pay. Several comhill tunnels alluded to in the Colonial Secretary's report had struck pay. Several comparies had struck pay on Toby's creek, while three companies had started for Finley's creek, where gold in paying quantities is believed to exist in the bed of that stream. A good deal of prospecting was going on in different directious, and there is believed to exist an extensive range of autiferous country. Quite a town has sprung up on Wild try. Quite a town has sprung up on Wild Horse Creek, where there were from 800 to 200 persons when Mr. Jenkins left; and he gives it as his opinion that at least 500 will pass the winter there. It is expected that next spring will witness a rush of not less than 20,000 persons into that country. The visions continued to flow in. Prices had un-

We are much gratified to be enabled to We are much gratified to be enabled to state that the hope which we sometime only $1, so for $2.50 there was all the fun and "muckamuck" a man could desire. A higher charge, say $7.50 could have been made to realise as much profit, but as the hospital is for the reception of poor men a fair way of being realized. While the press had taken up the subject and were discussing the practicability of the suggestion, the enterprising lessee of the Theatre, Mr. Thos. Ward, had taken time by the forelock and had already placed himself in communication with Mr. Coppin, Mr. and Mrs. Kear's agent A few gentlemen who felt an interest in the project met during last week, at Mr. Ward's project met during last week, at Mr. Ward's nvitation, and received from him a detailed statement of the terms and conditions upon which the engagement might be made, and which he would be prepared to carry into which he would be prepared to carry into practical effect, if assured of a liberal support on the part of the inhabitants. Those gentlemen invited the attendance of a number of other gentlemen at a meeting held on Saturday in Mr. Cruickshank's office, to consider the matter and decide upon the most desirable mode of assisting Mr. Ward in concluding an arrangement with the distinguished a definite answer by the coming mail steamer. Terms he said had already been arranged with the company for an engagement of six nights and only required his hinal ratification, or withdrawal under torfoiture. Those terms would entail a serious outlay on his part which he could only hope to defray by the kind exertions of his friends and the liberal patronage and support of the community at large. The prices of admission would of course have to be raised so as to admit of the nightly receipts by the house (when full) to exceeding $900, the estimated cost per night of the nudertaking. away at this hour he is unworthy of the name of Georgian. To the women no appeal is necessary. They are like the Spartan mothers of old. I know of one who has lost all her sons, except one of eight years. She wrote that she wanted me to reserve a place for him in the ranks. The venerable General Polk, to whom I read the letter, knew that woman
well, and said it was churacteristic of her;
but I will not weary you by turning aside to relate the various incidents of giving up the last son to the cause of cur country, known to me. Wherever we go we find the hearts and hands of our noble women enlisted. BEL DEMONIO. - Brougham's sensations drama of Bel Demonio was performed at the Theatre, on Saturday night to a tolerably good house. In this age of so much sensational trash, it is refreshing to come upon a piece which, with all the exaggerations of this and hands of our noble women enlist They are seen wherever the eye may fall d of drama, does not jar to any great exthe step turn. They have one duty to per form; to buoy up the hearts of our people I know the deep disgrace felt by Georgia a tent upon our sense of the possible. The play is an old subject dressed up by Mr. Brougham, nd embraces some historical facts of Italy our army falling back from Dalton to the in the middle ages, when the celebrated who considered Atlanta lost when our army crossed the Chattahoochee. In any the Cardinal Montalto, under the guise of a monk named Anselmo. After various encounters, in one of, which the son of the noble is killed, the daughter is at last wrested from her husband and immured within the walls of a convent. Here it is stated that there was no such monk as Anselmo when she was married, and that therefore the ceremony was a counterfeit, and she is lorced to take the vil. Braccioforte, however, determines to take her from the Convent, and by a happy strategrem by which the guards are outwitted makes his way into the guards are outwitted makes his way into the place, and there arrives just in time to save his wife from the horrors of being buried alive—the punishment awarded her by the Abbess. The retainers of his father-in law are, however, on his track, and they rash into the vault just as he is carrying off his wife. The Cardinal Montalto, who has been all the while counterfeiting decreptude, in order to get elected Pope, here rushes between the combatants and declares that Braccioforte to take the results of the combatants and declares that Braccioforte to get elected Pope, here rushes between the combatants and declares that Braccioforte was constant and the while counterfeiting decreptude, in order to get elected Pope, here rushes between the combatants and declares that Braccioforte was referred to the property of the way have a surface and the way to the property of t combatants and declares that Braccioforte is not committing sacrilege but taking away his own lawful wife, he (the Cardinal) having performed the marriage ceremony. The sook, noways disconcerted, persists; and is only brought to his senses by the tolling of the signal bell announcing that Montalta is made Pontiff. HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT. -Throat Affection Ganjederate of September 24th.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN, FRIENDS AND FELLOW-CITIENNS—It would bave gladdened my heart to have met you in prosperity instead of adversity. But friends are drawn together in adversity. The son of a Georgian who fought through the first Revolution, I would be untrue to myself if I should forget the State in her day of peril. What though misfortune has befallen our arms from Decatur to Jonesburo, our cause is not lost. Sherman cannot keep up his long line of communication, and retreat, sooner or later, he must; and when that day comes the fate that befell the army of the French Empire in its retreat from Moscow will be reacted. Our cavalry and our people will harrass and destroy his army as did the Cossacks that of Napoleon; and the Yankee General, like him, will esoare with only a body guard.

MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously aunk in gloon of an almost diotic apathy, becomes bright and active; and he goes forth regererated, conscious of new vigor. The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.
